MAYOR'S OFFICE.

The License Bureau of the Mayor's Office has come to partake of the character of a Mayor's court, and every day at noon the bland blonde represents the Mayor in a "marshal" manner. Yesterday there were a couple of complaints against

One John Godfrey, who keeps a shop at No. 304
Irand street, was complained of by Mrs. Christina Schlee, of No. 65 Eidridge street. Mrs. Schlee sharged that she pawned several articles, for which he received three dollars. On presenting the ticket o redeem the articles she was told they had been old to a Mr. Lederer, of No. 429 East Ninth street.
Mr. Godfrey was sent for by the Marshal and Mr. Godfrey was sent for by the Marshal and ham Horn, of 390 Seventh avenue, charging that he had pawned a watch for twenty dollars, on which he to pay interest at ten per cent a month, but on calling to redeem the watch could not of

The Marshal ordered Mr. Tannenholz to deliver the goods for $1.50.

An ont always escape the scourge of the Marshal. Thomas Farr appeared this morning before the Marshal and charged that he went to the exchange office of Joseph Loew at 142 Liberty street, and gave $510 in greenbacks to get English gold for it. He sailed for Liverpool on the 31st uit., and while aboard the ship the captain told him he had been defrauled out of forty sovereigns. It appears he had received the proper number of coins, but instead of sovereigns, had been given half sovereigns. The captain sont him back on a pilot boat and he appeared at the Mayor's office and complained as stated. Officer McGrath was despatched with Mr. Farr to wait on Loew who appeared to be much astonished a losing on his high game. Knowing that he would be handled without gloves, Loew refunded to Mr. Farr $235.

The Loan office.

Abomination is very frequently brought out by complaints at the Marshal's desk. The latest case is that of J. Macduff, keeper of a loan office at No. 77 Bleecker street. Macduff is represented as being a sharp customer and one who knows how to "lay on" the charges. The complaint was made by a Mr. J. Dougherty, who stated that he purchased a sharp customer and one who knows how to "lay on" the charges. The complaint was made by a Mr. M. J. bougherty, who stated that he purchased a loan ticket for a diamond ring; that he called for the ring, which was at Macdiul's place, and was told by the latter that it was worth about $140 or $145. He paid $125 and got the ring. On having it-examined by an expert he was assured that it was not worth more than $75. He applied to Macduff and asked to have his money refunded, but the latter would not give as much for the article as he did the first time.

inc. The "loan office" business is carried on quite ex-tensively in this city, and with most wonderful impunity, under all sorts of nomenciatures, such as diamond brokers and dealers in valuable jewelry, works of art and the like. Although complaints of sharp dodges to "beat" customers are often made, there appears to be no method by which the nefarious business can be reached or managed and unfortunate piedgers protected against the sharp-ness and Shylockism of the money lenders.

Resolutions culogistic of the late ex-Alderman

THE HOS YARDS.

The Examination Before the Referee Yester-

e Hasbrook in the case of the Board of Health inst Allerton Brothers for the abatement of the ness of yarding swine on Eleventh avenue, be-in Thirty-minth and Forty-first streets. Ira A. there was no nuisance perpetrated. They asserted that the yards were kept in a highly saniondition. Dr. Harris, Sanitary Superin-t, was called by the Board. He stated that he refully inspected the yards, and he could not tendent, was called by the Board. He stated that he had carefully inspected the yards and he could not speak of special defects in the drainage nor complain of the sanitary condition of the pens. When herds of swine are allowed to remain for any length of time unpleasant odors were produced; but he had no ground of complaint on either point. The offence was less against health than the senses of the community. Yet hog yarding was not detrimental to health unless brought directly into a thickly populated locality. The great objection to the existence in the built up portion of the city of these yards was that they attracted about them other offences in the way of slaughter houses and fat boiling establishments. The defence put in as evidence the following record of the business of the yards for the past four years:—Number of logs received at the yard for the years ending March 31, 1366, 633-674; average daily arrivals, 1,655, 1186, 63,164; daily arrivals, 1,655, 1186, 63,114; daily arrivals, 1,656, 1186, 63,114; daily arrivals, 1,656, 1186, 631,147; daily arrivals, 1,656, 1186, 631,147; daily arrivals, 1,656, 1186, 631,641; average daily arrivals, 1,726-showing a gradual decrease in the reception of stock. The investigation was adjourned until next Tuesday.
